

At the Theatres

THE OVERHOLSER.

The Al G. Field Minstrels will be seen for the last time at the Overholser tonight and the house will be packed out, as it has been at every performance since the minstrels opened Saturday afternoon. The Field Minstrels came to Oklahoma City at an opportune time, for evidently the patrons of the house want to see them. The show is a new one this year and it has the inevitable Bert Swart along with it. Also the dances are new and attractive. The Field Minstrel performances have always been of the highest quality, and the Field Minstrels are now to develop individual variations of the present form, and other modes in which to present their new material. ## TRAILS STOLEN

GOODS TO CAMP

Police Arrest Fisherman on Charge of Receiving Groceries Stolen From Star Cash Grocery.

J. J. Denton, a fisherman living at the old fish camp on the Canadian river at West Reno street, was arrested this morning by city police, charged with receiving stolen property. When arrested he was found to have nearly half of a quantity of stolen feed and groceries that were taken by robbers who last night broke into the Star Cash grocery at 1115 North Kentucky avenue, it is alleged.

According to R. A. Crenshaw, post owner in the store, tobacco, feed, groceries and meat valued at nearly $100 were stolen by the robbers. Grover Caldwell, chauffeur of a police automobile, was put on the case when Crenshaw reported the robbery early in the morning. He made an investigation, trailed the wagon tracks led by the thieves, which led to the fish camp. There he found most of the stolen property in the home of Denton who claimed that he had bought it from another man.

The investigation brought to light the manner in which the robbers are said to have worked. A horse and carriage owned by Charles Isenback were stolen from in front of the Catholic church last night and driven to the store. The horse was then hitched and put to a wagon belonging to the store. The wagon was loaded with groceries and driven to Delmar park where it was abandoned and the horse turned loose. The police allege that the harness was found with the groceries at the fish camp.

Further arrests will be made in connection with the robbery today. Denton was arrested and most of the groceries recovered by Officer Caldwell within thirty minutes after the robbery was reported this morning.

GREAT FACTORY

MAY COME HERE

Ford Motor Company May Put in Assembling Plant in Oklahoma City in the Near Future.

It is probable that Oklahoma City may have another large factory in a short time—an assembling plant for Ford automobiles. That hope has been raised by the visit of N. A. Hawkins, general sales manager, who has paid the city a visit and who says he will recommend such a plant here. Hawkins is the live wire of the Ford Motor company and on his first visit to Oklahoma was well pleased with the outlook. He assembled the salesmen of the company and the advertising men of the city during his visit and made an address that was of great interest to them. It was after he had looked over the field that Hawkins said he would recommend that an assembling plant of the company be located here.

Such a plant will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000 and will make Oklahoma City the headquarters for Ford cars in this section of the southwest. While in the city Mr. Hawkins called to mind the fact that in the year 1907 the Ford company sold 6,398 cars in all. In ten months of last year the Oklahoma City branch sold 6,000 cars. This illustrates the growth of the sales.

CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN

Newspaper Men Will Greet Their Friends Tomorrow Afternoon in the Herskovitz Building.

For the first time since its reorganization the Oklahoma City Press club will hold an open house tomorrow afternoon and night in the new club rooms on the twelfth floor of the Herskovitz building. The active members of the club now number more than sixty and many of the prominent state officials and business men of the city are associate members.

The entertainment committee, composed of Laurie Keller, Richard S. Graves, Charles J. Brill, E. B. Guthrie, George B. Baker, Fred Tarman, Victor Harlow, Siddey Suggs and N. E. Langenfelder, has made arrangements for the entertainment of the guests.

Miss Neva May, the bride of the week, was honored Saturday by a delightful afternoon given by Mrs. J. D. Ratliff and Mrs. N. E. Peterson at the home of Mrs. Ratliff. Pink and green predominated in the colors of the decorations, pink carnations tied with pink ribbons being presented as favors to the guests. Miss Pauline May Ratliff presented Miss May with a cluster of pink carnations tied with pink ribbons, and she was also the recipient of a recipe book in hand embroidered cover in which each guest wrote their favorite recipe. The afternoon was spent in needlework and later Misses Mary Laura Peckham and Pauline Ratliff presented to the bride-elect a pretty basket filled with towels, from the guests. Luncheon was served at the close to Misses H. D. May, H. W. Farr, R. E. Starbuck, E. P. Trough, Hugh Stennum, Ray Hanson, E. C. Watkins, Harold Bradburn, Fred H. Peckham, Miss Blanche Griffin of Memphis, Misses Daisy and Ella Cummings, Margaret Trough and Pauline Ratliff.

Mrs. Joseph Offutt is visiting Mrs. Ray Colcord in Wichita, Kan. Miss Caroline Colcord also expects to go to Wichita for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney D. Wiley of Columbus, O., are the guests for a few days of Mrs. Riley's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Grigsby.

Mrs. J. M. Campbell gave a lovely informal spring luncheon Saturday for Mrs. Ernest F. Blissett of St. Louis, who is being made the recipient of so many pretty courtesies. Unfolding, hyacinths and lilies of the valley adorned the table and seated with the hostess and honor guest were Misses Edwin L. Dunn of Muskogee, Thomas P. Martin, Jr., Frederick B. Owen, L. C. Thurmond and L. D. Knight.

The T. M. T. C. club was entertained Friday by Mrs. Oliver C. Black, who had also as guests Misses F. B. Rogers, Monroe Chestnut, Frank Metcalf and C. F. Griffin. The afternoon was spent with needlework, and the club will meet again with Mrs. J. T. Pridley.

Dixie Dinner.

Replete with the most original and distinctive features, so characteristic of the clever hostess was the Dixie dinner given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Huckle in honor of Mrs. E. F. Blissett of St. Louis. At a large round table in the banquet room of the Lee Huckle place were laid for sixteen guests who enjoyed most happily the informality of the jolly occasion.

In the center of the table was a bit of the old south in the pickaninny, with its mud chimney, the pickaninny, watermelon, cotton patch, pig pen, gray mule, chickens and moss hung trees. Even the bound dog was there and the clothes line with its patchwork quilt, and family washing and the whole surrounded by a rail fence. Red bandanas formed the napkins, large sized "goodies" the nut cases, and favors were alligators for the mice and dainties perched on cotton bales for the ladies. The candles were shaded with cotton and southern moss, and a real old time dinner of many southern delicacies was served by typical darky "mammy" girls. One of the features of the menu was the ice which was served in miniature bales of cotton, surrounded by a confederate flag, and another was the pralines, the confection par excellence of New Orleans.

The hostess was a characteristic southern girl of the old regime in her beruffled frock, and curls, and many darky stories and old time games added to the pleasure of the evening. The guests were Mrs. Blissett, Miss Katherine Blackman, of Alexandria, La., Messrs and Misses T. P. Martin, Jr., Bernard B. Jones, Hunter A. Craycroft, W. E. Taylor, Miss Love Craycroft, Mrs. H. D. Bentley, and Messrs. Arthur B. Clark and Dan D. Thompson of Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Hester L. McDermid, who has spent the past six weeks with her daughter Mrs. Ralph W. Day, will depart Wednesday for her home in Detroit, Mich. Mrs. McDermid has been the recipient of many charming informal courtesies from friends who are hoping for an early return visit.

Mrs. Bernard B. Jones and Mrs. John Hale were hostesses at the Lee Huckle card party Saturday afternoon at the hotel. Mrs. R. Alex Wells and Mrs. Charles Ruth received the favors.

Mrs. Henry Overholser will entertain with a theater party Tuesday evening at the Overholser in honor of Miss Jeanne Turner and Mr. William O. Smythe of Marietta. The party will occupy all the lower boxes on the right side and will include Misses Ethlyn Johnson, Edith Miller, Amy Brooks, Margery Taylor of Indianapolis, Ind., Messrs and Misses Harry Waldron, Tom Brantiff, Guy Turner, William A. Brooks and Messrs. Frank Schefner, Gunnell Moore, L. L. Bryan and Mrs. W. P. Lipscomb and George D. McLean.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Detrick, formerly of this city, but who have made their home in Deland, Fla., for several years, will be interested in the narrow escape which Mrs. Detrick had from drowning last week, while in swimming with a party of friends at De Leon Springs. Only the clearness of the water, which enabled her rescuer to see her after she had gone under, afforded the means of bringing her to the surface.

Mrs. J. W. Pryor entertained with a beautiful luncheon Saturday in compliment to Mrs. A. Wike of Toledo, O., who is the guest of her sister Mrs. Harry W. Clegern. Ferns and carnations decked the table which was laid for twelve guests, and the place cards were hand-painted in the same design. The guests of the occasion were Misses Clegern, William Mee, W. M. Westfall, E. C. Thorne, R. A. Chase, M. D. Scott, Sarah Walker, D. C. Daugherty, J. F. Warren and Albert Lehr. The remainder of the afternoon was spent informally with needlework.

Mrs. W. H. Smyth and little son, Paul, who were called here several weeks ago by the serious illness of Mrs. Smyth's mother, Mrs. James Penney, returned Saturday to their home in Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Smyth was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. Clifton Ratliff and his daughter, Miss Blanche Davis Ratliff, as far as Memphis.

The Jefferson School Patrons' club met Friday, when the program was in charge of the teachers of the building, each room furnishing one number. A duet by Misses Winnie Davis and Nellie Graw, accompanied by Miss Grace Euliss at the piano and Miss Ruth Embury on the violin, was the opening number. Other musical numbers were given by Misses Dorothy Roney, Laura Spaulding, Eleanor Elbow, Mary Thorne Thatcher and Emily Hess, and violin numbers by Misses Evangeline Renfrow and Alma Fluch. The pupils of Mrs. Welch gave a word drill, those of Miss Day a phonetic drill; Miss Daniel's pupils a number drill; Miss Wood's pupils a word drill; Miss Leckner's pupils a song demonstration. Miss Smith's pupils a group of songs. Miss Margery Scott gave a recitation, and Miss Rowan Spencer a picture study, assisted by her teacher, Miss Bennett.

JENKINS-PIANOS

We'll Be Movin' Back Home Next Week

Looks now as though no plan can miscarry that will prevent our getting back in our old home April 1st. Masons, mechanics, craftsmen of various trades, are crowding the work on our new building to completion.

This new Home of Music will be much like the old home that burned last December—three stories and basement—every foot of which will contain only Musical Things of tried and true merit, and the same competent salesforce will be there to welcome you.

Before Moving We Hope to Dispose of All Our Used and Shopworn Pianos and Player Pianos

We will attempt to do this by underpricing all the used Pianos that have come to us in exchange since our fire on new Pianos and other fine Pianos such as Kurtzman, Vose and Steinway.

WE MENTION A FEW AS SAMPLES ONLY. COME AND INSPECT THEM ALL—OR WRITE FOR A COMPLETE DESCRIPTIVE LIST.

Used Hazelton Bros' Piano . . . $165 $5 Mo.	Used Kimball Piano . . . $145 $5 Mo.
Used Decker Bros' Piano . . . $200 $5 Mo.	Used Whitney Piano . . . $145 $5 Mo.
Used Elburn Piano . . . $185 $5 Mo.	Used Harwood Piano . . . $265 $5 Mo.
Used Clough & Warren Piano $110 $5 Mo.	Used Outside Pianola . . . $45 $5 Mo.

Then there is one of the finest most expensive $450 Kurtzman Pianos that was out in use a few months only that is offered at $295; $8 monthly. There's a slightly used latest style Aeolian Harwood Player at $435; $10 monthly. A fine, could not be told from new, $450 Estey at $295; $8 monthly. A just like new best style Story & Clark at $200; $5 monthly—and ever so many others. Now is the time to save on that Piano—just the season to start the little folks in music, too.

J.W. JENKINS

Sons' Music Co.

THANKS HIS FRIENDS

Jack Jones Made Clean Race. Was Defeated and Asks Friends to Support the Whole Ticket.

Jack Jones, one of the candidates for the Republican nomination for commissioner of public property in the recent primary, issued the following statement to his friends Monday:

"I take this method of thanking my friends for their vote and support in the recent primary, at which I was a candidate for nomination for commissioner of public property on the Republican ticket. I made a clean race and have no ill feeling toward anyone, and I hope and trust my friends will support H. G. Eastman, the nominee of the Republican party for commissioner of public property. Mr. Eastman is a man worthy of the support of the voters; he is a successful business man and he will make us an excellent city official. I trust my friends will not only support Mr. Eastman, my opponent in the primary, but every nominee on the Republican ticket, from Ed. Overholser down."

ASKS ENDOWMENT TO TRAIN U. S. DIPLOMATS

NEW YORK, March 22.—In a message to the council of New York made public today, Chancellor Elmer E. Brown asks for an endowment of $250,000 for a new department of international affairs. The aim is to train Americans in diplomacy.

"If we are to escape the recurrent war panic," Chancellor Brown said, "which fosters militarism we must cultivate understanding of those agencies available for forestalling international complications and for bringing them to a rational solution. We must learn to appreciate the value of international good manners."
